

Federal Tech Assurance – Audit at KPMG

It's an exciting era for Federal Tech Assurance – Audit at KPMG, as we position our organization—and professionals like you—for optimal growth, innovation, and impact. We're driven to be the best and offer many advantages to inspire and empower your success, now and for years to come.

Federal Tech Assurance – Audit professionals primarily work on Federal Government entities, including 9 of the 15 cabinet-level agencies.

Our government-focused team serves a large and diverse portfolio of Federal and commercial clients, thus offering our professionals valuable exposure to the intersection of finance and technology that is so important to government agencies and businesses alike.

Do work that matters more each day

In simplest terms, you'll help clients assess, manage, and remediate IT-related risks. But our purpose is now taking on even greater urgency as government entities become ever-more reliant on technology to ensure data integrity. We've anticipated this development and taken steps to accommodate the rapid digital transformation our clients now face. As a member of our diverse team, you'll do innovative, meaningful work today—and develop cross-functional accounting and technology skills that open doors to unlimited potential.
