

International Tax

KPMG LLP's (KPMG) International Tax practice understands tax and trade regulations and changing business conditions in jurisdictions across the world to support clients in international and cross-border activities.

We navigate the complexity of international tax laws (including that relating to ongoing U.S. and global tax reform) for our clients in connection with their global business activities and initiatives. The majority of our work is consulting based and includes:

Advice on global business expansions, mergers and acquisitions, dispositions, and internal restructurings to achieve client business objectives and global tax efficiencies

Analyses to identify tax efficiencies in connection with client supply chain redesigns, digital strategies, and global business transformations

Research and support with respect to new complex taxpayer information reporting and international compliance requirements resulting from tax reform

Specialty groups

International Tax—help multinational organizations identify tax opportunities and avoid pitfalls in doing business globally
